APPOMATTOX COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY ESTABLISHED

The corporation's major function will be to discover and collect any material which may help to establish or illustrate the history of the area: its exploration, settlement, development, and activities in peace and in war; its progress in population, wealth, education, arts, science, agriculture, manufactures, trade, and transportation. It will collect printed descriptions, gazetteers, directories, newspapers, pamphlets, catalogs, circulars, handbills, programs, and posters; manuscript material such as letters, diaries, journals, memoranda, reminiscences, rosters, service records, account books, charts, maps, surveys, and field books; and museum material such as pictures, photographs, paints, portraits, scenes, aboriginal relics, and material objects illustrative of life, conditions, events, and activities of the past and the present.

The society will provide for the preservation of such material and for its accessibility, as far as may be feasible, to all who wish to examine or study it, to cooperate with officials in insuring the preservation and accessibility of the records and archives of the county and its cities, towns, villages, and institutions, and to undertake the preservation of historic buildings, monuments, and markers. The society will disseminate historical information and arouse interest in the past by publishing historical information in the newspapers or otherwise; by holding meetings and pageants, addresses, lectures, papers, and discussions, by marking historic buildings, sites, and trails; and by using the media of radio and television to awaken public interest.

The first membership meeting of the new society will be on Oct. 30, 1975 at 7:30 p.m. in the Appomattox County High School cafeteria. Everyone interested in joining the society is encouraged to attend this roadiana Exhibits; an Arts and Crafts show and sale where special emphasis will be placed on Civil War period art, traditional crafts, and works with a railroad related theme; and Cactus Joe Choo Choo which will have free rides for the children courtesy of local businesses.

Special attractions, new with the Festival this year, will include the National Park Service Bicentennial Art Exhibit, the Virginia Independence Bicentennial Commission's Conestoga Wagon; the Fincastle Rifles Civil War Encampment; The Quitchers Square Dance group; "Winnie-the-Pooh" and "Smokey the Bear"; and Private Railroad Car #50 (small admission charge to this "Special train")

AMTRAK "Mountaineer 54" and "Mountaineer 55" will be making Flag Stops at 1:55 p.m. and 5:10 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday. It will be possible to purchase tickets for a ride terminating and originating from Appomattox for the 11th and 12th of October.

The majority of the Festival events will take place on Main Street and at the Depot. However, the Old Revco Building, the corner of Atwood and Lee, and the lot directly behind the Hotel will also be the site of exhibits.

Everyone is encouraged to make plans now to attend two fun-filled days on Oct. 11 and 12 and get "All Aboard" the Third Annual Historic Railroad Festival.

One of the highlights of the Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival will be the Arts and Crafts Exhibits and Sale. These will be located in and around the Depot. Independent craftsmen and artists from Appomattox and surrounding areas as well as members of the Historic Appomattox Station Arts and Crafts Center will be participating.

A colorful array of handcrafts will be on display. These including quilts, knitted and crocheted items, dolls, stuffed animals, wood and leather products, decoupage, handcrafted Indian gift items, cornhusk creations, pottery, ceramics, jewelry, and basket weaving. Art exhibit will be on display in the Old Revco Building. Oil paintings, watercolors, and sketches with historic themes will be in the collection.

As an added treat this year, many of the artists will be conducting demonstrations during the weekend.

The Festival will also offer opportunity to ride on the Christmas shopping train. So many unique items will be sure to join in the Festival and will be on hand to display their historic clothing, hats and patchwork. Civil War, or Railroad hats and patches will be available on Main Street.
